

THE WORLD OF

Horse Country

WARRENTON, VIRGINIA

Dear Santa,
 I think you might remember me. You visited our family every Christmas eve when I was young and lived in West Caldwell. I was the horse crazy kid that showed hunters until I went off to college. Nowadays, I'm a fox hunter, a weekend warrior. I'm the guy who feeds the horses at 6 every morning before going to work in town. And though the wind is still in the early morning, the temperature is at zero. I bust the ice out of water buckets every day. Last winter, I shoveled so much snow, I thought I'd lose my toes. I just want to be warm and comfortable this winter. Santa, you know my life style... and you know I've been good. Do you have a suggestion?
 Joey D.

Dear Joey,
 I do remember you. You're a big boy now. Call Horse Country. It's the best.
 Respectfully,
 Santa
