

THE WORLD OF

Horse Country

WARRENTON, VIRGINIA

May your holidays be filled with joy, friendship, and wafting good smells!

Bunsen and I love the Christmas season. Such wonderful sights, sounds, and – best of all for us – smells!

Aye, lassie, such a pity that our poor human friends dinnae have the scenting power you and I have. Who needs lights and holiday music when there are so many wonderful smells to enjoy?

Indeed, Bunsen. But everyone at Horse Country is enjoying all the decorations, the seasonal tunes, and, of course, the wonderful scents of leather, wool, old books, fresh baked goods, and so much more.

And my favorite seasonal scent of all...piggy pudding!

Um, Bunsen, that's "figgy" pudding.

Nae, lass. When it's done right, it's made with bacon. And that makes it "piggy" pudding.

Well, I certainly wouldn't try to get between Bunsen and a piece of bacon or explain the history of mincemeat pies. So we'll just let him call it "piggy" pudding. Whether you like your pudding with or without bacon, here's wishing all of our friends the merriest holidays and the happiest New Year. We look forward to seeing you in 2011.

Oh, bring us a piggy pudding and a cup of good cheer...
